

Name: _____ Date: _____ Class: _____

Interpreting the Lux Reading

The drawing represents a light source and light meter similar to what you just used. Add to drawing to show the light from the source to the sensor. Then use the drawing to indicate what light you actually measured. Write in words what you understand was measured or what your reading represents.