Breadboard Visual Aid

- Power supply snaps onto board
- Different voltages at each end, V1 and V2
- Exterior columns are linked vertically with the voltage from the power supply and ground
- Each hole is called a “terminal”
- Rows are linked horizontally in the middle two columns
- Use jumper wires to connect the left side to the right side

Applications of Systems of Equations: An Electronic Circuit Activity—Breadboard Visual Aid