

Name:

Date:

Class:

The Water Around Us Exit Ticket Answers

Fill in the box with the correct type of water source:

A large stream of water that runs into a lake, sea or another river.	River
A large expanse of sea.	Ocean
A small body of moving water	Stream
A large body of water surrounded by land.	Lake
A small body of still (non-moving) water.	Pond

What kinds of water sources can we use for our drinking water?

Example answer: River, stream, lake, pond

What are the differences between salt water and fresh water?

Example answer: Fresh water doesn't have salt. We can drink fresh water.

Where can natural water and human-made water be found?

Example answer: Natural can be found outside, human-made is found in sinks, tubs, and fountains.

Why is water important for animals and plants?

Example answer: Animals and plants need water to survive.