Tower Masters Research Worksheet

1. Define:

Engineer: __________________________________________________________________________

Civil engineer: _______________________________________________________________________

2. Compare and contrast observations: List features that are common to the world’s tallest towers.

1. __________________________________________________________________________________
2. __________________________________________________________________________________
3. __________________________________________________________________________________

3. What is the engineering design process?

The engineering design process is __________________________________________________________

___________________________ __________________________ ____________________________

Engineering Design Process

___________________________ __________________________ ____________________________