Two-Column Notes: BONES

Article title: How Bones Grow

Today's date: _____

Instructions

As you pair-read, take two-column notes about important facts, vocabulary, concepts and other information you want to remember or will need to use. Be sure to mark-up the article using your visual clues, questioning or note-taking techniques.

Topic:
Check one:	□ Lecture	🗆 Text	🗆 Film	Presentation/Demonstration
	main ideas/quo			Your notes
with	n page numbers
_
How bones gr	ow
Damas in a hal	L
Bones in a baby
Baby bones made of (vocab)
What happens as you grow
Age this is completed
Age this is cor	Ilpieteu
Your spine
Purpose of sp	ine
Types of verte	brae
i ypes of verte

Key words/main ideas/quotations with page numbers	Important ideas/notes
Your ribs
Main function and location
Number of ribs and where they attach to the body
Your skull
What is special about your skull?
Your legs
The leg bones connected to the Longest bone (also the strongest!)
Two other bones in your leg
Taking care of bones	